TRUSTEES' MEETING

BOARD WILL CONFER WITH L. A. COMMITTEE IN IVANHOE BRIDGE CASE

The Board of Trustees met in regular session at the City Hall at 8:25 p. m., October 25, 1917. All members present at roll call.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

The order of business was changed in order to hear from citizens present in regard to the Yuletide project.

Mr. E. U. Emery addressed the board, reporting the action of the committee of which Mr. Mattison B. Jones is chairman, stating that he had been appointed a member of a committee to see what funds could be secured from the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trustees of the city; further stating that it was advisable to raise a considerable sum of money to purchase uniform boxes for Christmas presents, the cost of which would probably be about $1 apiece.

Mr. C. R. Chandler also spoke on the subject, stating that about 250 men had gone into the ranks from this vicinity, and it was hoped that the sum of $500 could be secured for the purpose of affording them Yuletide cheer.

Mr. J. G. Hunchberger, also a member of the committee, addressed the board along similar lines.

Mr. Emery again addressed the board, stating that the above committee had secured a room for its headquarters, the use of which had been donated by the proprietor, and he requested that the Public Service Department furnish the room with electricity for heating purposes. On motion of Trustee Grist, the request was granted.

Trustee Woodberry made a motion, which was adopted, referring to the City Attorney the question of the board's authority to make a donation to this object.

A communication was read from the finance committee of the City Council of Los Angeles, setting forth the desirability of that body's meeting with the Board of Trustees of this city for a thorough discussion of the method of building the proposed Brand boulevard bridge. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the clerk was directed to reply to the communication, stating that the Board of Trustees will be glad to meet with the finance committee of the Los Angeles City Council at its regular session on Thursday evening next.

A communication was read from the Southern California Gas Company, replying to a letter written to that company by the City Clerk, stating that they are now working on their annual statement of gross receipts, which they expect to have ready within a very short time. The communication was ordered to be filed.

A communication was read from the Los Angeles Official Records Company, stating that it is prepared to furnish reports to cities outside of Los Angeles on cards containing complete data of all property registered under the "land title law." It is proposed to charge for this service at the rate of 25 cents for each lot reported on. On motion, the communication was referred to the City Clerk for investigation and report.

Report was received from the Tax Collector, stating that collection of taxes had begun on the 20th, the amount to date collected being $1136.70.

The City Engineer presented a communication in regard to the work on Grand View avenue, showing that the total cost of the work done by the city of Glendale was $3.63 per foot for each side of the street, there being 113.53 feet of frontage assessed at $412.21. He made a favorable contrast with similar work being done by the county, the cost of which was $3.51 per foot on a job aggregating $21,337.

He reported that all of the Broadway assessments had been collected, with one exception.

Trustee Woodberry reported that, with other trustees, they had met Mr. Newport in Verdugo canyon, and had carefully looked over the proposed changes of streets and alleys in that vicinity. In his opinion, the proposed changes promised an improvement of conditions in regard to storm water. It had been suggested that conditions might still be further improved by vacating Niodrara drive. The City Manager had interviewed some of the property owners, who seemed to be in favor of the proposition. Mr. Woodberry further reported that Mr. Newport is willing to do some temporary work in the way of assuring the run-off of the storm water into the Verdugo canyon stream, with the least possible damage. Mr. Newport addressed the board in reference to the proposed changes.

On motion, Resolution No. 971, "A

EXEMPTION BOARD

HEADQUARTERS CHANGED TO GLENDALE—CALL FOR 250 ADDITIONAL MEN

Mattison B. Jones of Glendale, secretary of the Exemption Board of the Seventh exemption district of Los Angeles county, and F. D. Lanterman of La Canada, member of the board, have announced that the headquarters of the Exemption Board of this districct will be at the Chamber of Commerce room at 1010 West Broadway, Glendale, after November 1, 1917. The headquarters have been located at San Fernando, but as Glendale is the most central place in the district, so far as population is concerned, and as two of the board reside in the Glendale community, it has been deemed wise to make the change. John T. Wilson of San Fernando is chairman of the board. A call is being issued for 250 men from this district. The list will be posted in the Chamber of Commerce window this evening, and will be published in the Evening News tomorrow afternoon.

ANDERSON—HARRIS

On Thursday evening, October 25, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride in Garavanza, Mr. Gilbert W. Anderson, of 407 South Isabel street, was married to Miss Lola Harris. The wedding was private, only the immediate family being present. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Higgins, of 119 South Howard street, Glendale, as matron of honor and best man. Rev. M. F. Rinker performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson expect to make their home in Glendale, where they will visit with the groom' parents for a time. Mr. Anderson is connected with the basket factory in Tropico. A reception will be given this evening for the young couple by the groom's mother, Mrs. M. A. Anderson, at her home.

LITTLE GIRL WANTS HOME

A temporary home is wanted for a small girl of ten whose mother has been in the hospital for several months past and is unable for the present to provide for the child. She is a bright, capable, willing little girl, who has had much practice in caring for the little ones in her own family, who have now all been sent away to the care of relatives. The mother is a deserving, hard working woman, whose home has been in Glendale for a number of years. She feels that the parting with this motherly little daughter will be too much and wishes to keep her near if a possible way may be found. The child will be glad to do what she can toward earning her board while she attends school. Those having charge of the case will be glad to furnish further particulars. Phone Glendale 350-J.

ENTERTAIN EASTERN FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Westing, Mrs. Carrie (Hodge) Jones of Meligh, Neb., and Mrs. E. D. Hodge, mother of the two ladies mentioned, all Illinois state and Chicago old-time friends of Samuel Parker and Ezra Parker of Glendale, called on the 24th, attesting to a friendship running back a half century with the more aged members of the party. Mrs. Hodge and the Westings reside in Los Angeles. After a pleasant visit Mrs. Jones returned to her Nebraska home yesterday.

GREETS MRS. SUNDAY

Rev. Leslie G. Parker, of the Monrovia Christian church, motored via Glendale to the Sunday tabernacle Tuesday and took his uncle, Samuel Parker, to the 2 o'clock service, the only meeting he has been able to attend, and this was more for the purpose of a good-bye word before they go elsewhere. He did meet Mrs. Sunday for an exchange of greetings, brief but cordial, as between old neighbors. On the return trip Rev. Parker made a brief call on the venerable Dr. Dungan. He was glad to find him so comfortable.

R. T. W. LUNCHEON

A luncheon was given on Thursday by the young married ladies' class of the Baptist Sunday school, which has now adopted "R. T. W." as a class name. The luncheon was at the home of Mrs. Oren Howard, 1464 Sycamore avenue, in honor of Mrs. Stanford, who is the class teacher. The party was a successful surprise to Mrs. Stanford, and proved a very delightful affair all around. The decorations were in yellow and white, being carried out in the flowers at the table in the dining room and in the very clever little place cards.

KITS ARE RECEIVED

SOLDIERS APPRECIATE COMFORT BAGS FURNISHED BY W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Kara S. Root, wife of Mr. W. D. Root, the history teacher at the Glendale Union High School, is in receipt of an especially interesting letter, among the many which she receives in the course of her W. C. T. U. work. This letter, from Corporal Wilbert Wadleigh, of the Fourteenth company, C. C. A., at Fort Rosecrans, San Diego, is self explanatory, and follows:

Mrs. Kara S. Root, State Corresponding Secretary, California W. C. T. U.:

Dear Madam—The commanding officer of our company, Capt. D. K. Smythe, has directed me to inform you of his hearty thanks and appreciation for what you have done for the boys by sending them comfort bags. He himself is the recipient of one, and declares it to be the very best he has ever encountered.

I personally wish to inform you of several men of the company who have quit smoking and have sworn off drinking as a result of really thinking sensibly over the good objects contained in your circulars. This is a fact, and I purpose to send you a list of their names shortly. This proves that the work of your organization is by no means in vain, and should be continued, with as great an enthusiasm as the cause warrants.

Hoping that other men may profit by the sensible advice extended to them by good women, and that your comfort bag supply will be distributed in a way to produec the greatest effect, I am, very sincerely,

WILBERT WADLEIGH,
Vice President of the Phi Eta Kappa.

MRS. CAMPBELL ENTERTAINS

On Thursday morning Miss Grace Saxe, of the Billy Sunday party, gave a delightful talk to 27 Glendale ladies, friends of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, whom she had invited to her home, 1750 Highland avenue, to hear this talented and charming speaker. Miss Saxe has long been a personal friend of Mrs. Campbell, to which fortunate circumstance was due such an unusual opportunity of obtaining this intimate little talk concerning her many wonderful experiences. She motored out with Mrs. Daniel McPeak of Los Angeles, mother of Mrs. Campbell, especially for this one hour in Glendale, though her program was so pressing that she was unable even to remain for lunch. Her position as head of the Bible study work in connection with the Sunday campaign in Los Angeles and the towns about Southern California is a most demanding one, and her work of great importance. She told of this work in a truly enlightening way, explaining her methods of starting the many Bible study classes which she has instituted, and also telling how she came to be interested in Bible study. She confessed to having been an infidel in earlier years, but made clear how she was inevitably converted to Christianity through mature study and astronomy, of which she was a great student. Her talk was an appealing as well as interesting one, and her personality is one which lends great influence to her subject.

DEATH OF J. C. HOLMAN

The many friends of Mr. J. C. Holman, 1633 West Third street, will be made sad by the news of his death this morning at 7 o'clock at his home. Mr. Holman had suffered a hemorrhage of the brain some seven months ago, which was followed by a stroke of paralysis, and during the entire time since he has been unable to speak a word, though he regained the use of his muscles to such an extent that at times he was able to move about, and even to write.

He was a native of Indianapolis, where he lived most of his life until coming to California about ten years ago. He came to Glendale about five years ago, after having married Miss Grace Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, of 1657 West Broadway. He was 32 years old at the time of his death, and leaves a widow and three children, Lawrence, Harold and Mildred, also a mother, Mrs. Martha Holman, of Los Angeles, his father having died two months ago, though the son had never learned of that sad fact.

He was a member of the First Nazarene church of Los Angeles, and had become a Christian in his early life. His genuine Christianity and his resignation are a comfort to those he leaves in his passing to what he had faith in being the better life ahead. Funeral services will be held from the First Nazarene church, corner of Sixth and Wall streets, Los Angeles, and are in the hands of the Bresee Brothers, funeral directors, of Los Angeles.

HAPPENINGS IN STATE

CALIFORNIA AVACADO GROWERS ARE IN SESSION AT RIVERSIDE

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 26.—California avacado growers met here today for a two-day session to be devoted to the promotion of the avacado growing industry. No fruit is as rich in food value as the avacado, which carries 20 per cent fat in addition to various valuable mineral substances, according to the University of California citrus and food experts. For that reason the university has decided to do all possible to promote its culture and bring it to a stage of productiveness which will make it a common food in California homes. University of California men will address the meetings, which began today, the list including Prof. M. E. Jaffam, food expert; H. J. Webber, director of the graduate school of tropical agriculture maintained by the university at Riverside, and others.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—San Francisco told its last quota of drafted men good-bye today. Literary exercises were held in front of the City Hall, at which Senator James D. Phelan, Mayor James Rolph, Judge T. F. Graham and others spoke. There was no parade. The men, about 500 in number, representing the final 15 per cent of the San Francisco quota, will leave tomorrow and Sunday for American Lake, Wash.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 26.—Buy Liberty bonds not only because it's patriotic, but as a sound investment. That was the message of Luther Burbank, plant wizard, given today through the United Press. "I believe in the bonds because of their national importance, and most thoroughly indorse them," he declared. "I indorse them also from a business standpoint, and not only because the government issues them to prosecute the war, and we should subscribe for patriotic reasons. I regard Liberty bonds as a good investment, backed by the best security on earth. I have backed my own opinion by subscribing to the first Liberty loan, and have arranged to buy bonds from the second loan."

RED CROSS NEEDS SERVICES OF TWO AUTOS

For two weeks past Miss Douglass' boys have been unable to collect old newspapers for the Red Cross salvage department because there were no machines at her service for that work. Will not some one come forward with their automobile and help in this good work this Saturday? Last month this department turned $67 into the Red Cross treasury from the sale of old newspapers and pasteboard boxes alone. Is it not worth while?

DEATH OF MISS MEMETT

Miss Elfie Memett passed away on Wednesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lina Memett, 347 Gardena avenue, Tropico. She leaves, besides her mother, three sisters, Mrs. R. J. Sherman, whose home is also with Mrs. Memett; Mrs. H. R. Gage of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Charles A. Bayer of Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Miss Memett was a native of Chicago, where she had spent most of her life, coming to Tropico in March after a visit to her sister in New York. She had been ill for some time. No funeral arrangements have been announced.

Personals

Attorney W. E. Evans, of 113 South Orange street, is the owner of a new Buick Six touring car, purchased from J. G. Hunchberger, the Buick agent in Glendale.

Mrs. A. M. Beamon spent the day on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Salo Desky, 2653 Kenwood avenue, Los Angeles. Mrs. Desky, who has been very ill, is improving.

W. J. Clendenin and Mrs. Clendenin, with their house guest, Miss Keers of Portland, Ore., motored to Long Beach Wednesday, stopping on the way back in Los Angeles, where they had dinner.

That substantial and well finished combination auto passenger and truck that is being driven on the streets by the Glendale Sanitarium helpers was purchased from Packer & Roman, Studebaker agency, at the corner of Brand boulevard and Colorado street.

Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable, 755 South Columbus avenue, were among the dinner guests on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Emerson ,or West Forty-first street, Los Angeles. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Arthur Ramage of Oakland and Miss Ollie Klittel of Hayward.

Mrs. A. W. Beach, of 333 North Brand boulevard, with Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Brown, of 147 South Louise, motored down to Imperial by way of San Diego, leaving Glendale on Monday. The party will be entertained by Mrs. Beach's sister, Mrs. C. D. Christian, at her ranch home near El Centro. They expect to be back in Glendale on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Otis Fisher, of 315 Everett street, was in receipt of a telegram on Thursday telling of the death of her brother, Mr. Philip Wagar, of Company E, Camp Lewis, at American Lake. When heard from last, about a week ago, Mr. Wagar was in the best of health, and as he has always been a strong, robust young fellow, no cause for his tragic death can even be surmised.

The West Glendale W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. R. W. Stine, 1620 West Broadway, Tuesday, October 23, at 2:30 p. m. The devotional services were conducted by Mrs. Cook. Mrs. Hartley had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Christenson sang two sweet solos in Danish, her native language. Mrs. Hyatt gave us an interesting account of her recent trip to San Francisco and vicinity. After the meeting adjourned a social time was enjoyed and light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. W. Henry, of 1324 Arden avenue, are entertaining as their house guests Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox of Santa Clara. The party motored down in Mr. Frank Wilcox's new 12-cylinder Kissel-kar, enjoying a very pleasant trip, and plan to make Glendale their headquarters while they tour the whole of Southern California. This is a return trip after a visit last winter which so enthused them with the beauties of this locality that they look forward to spending more time here in the future.

FOR TENNIS COURT FUND

The program to be given on Saturday evening, October 27, at the Central avenue school, for the benefit of the tennis courts, promises to be very good indeed. The famous Ralston family will appear in a comedy as well as the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," and Miss Wetherby will sing two solos. Mr. Cecil Crandall will give a violin solo and two fascinating "Chinese magicians," in splendid Oriental array, will do some marvelous things in sleight of hand and mysterious magic. It is hoped that the fund already started with an earlier entertainment may be generously completed with the proceeds of this performance. Tickets will be 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Have you bought your season ticket for the Red Cross concert series?—$1.50, at the Red Cross headquarters.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The undersigned will sell on Thursday, November 15, 1917, at 10 o'clock a. m., in front of my place of business, 710 West Broadway, Glendale, Cal., to the highest bidder, one Cleveland motorcycle, factory number 725, license number G G 958. —You are as welcome as your daughters and sons and will be highly pleased with the entertainment.

—Gentlemen 50 cents, Ladies free.

SOME PUMPKINS

If you want to get something—pumpkins, for instance—merely mention it in the columns of the Evening News and you'll get it double quick. (If it is for a worthy cause like the Red Cross.) The writer of yesterday's pumpkin request, who desires to be anonymous, wishes to express appreciation for pumpkins by the dozen. These will be used at the barn dance and Halloween party for the Red Cross tomorrow night at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Bachman, 303 West Ninth street, Glendale. (All come to this unique and amusing occasion; wear your "barn clothes.")

Besides this, our progressive and patriotic fellow citizens, Messrs. Cornwall and Kelty, have donated the huge pumpkin now on exhibition in their north window. The idea is, on Thursday next, to divide these pumpkins among a number of ladies who are willing to bake them into pies for the Red Cross. These will be judged by a committee of gustatory experts—of the details more later—and a prize will be given to the winner. The pies will then be distributed to Glendale grocers, who will display them the next Saturday, i. e., tomorrow week, and sell them for the Red Cross. A splendid chance to get further co-operation and money for the Red Cross. By the way, take a look at these pumpkins in the C. & K. window as you pass and just guess how much the big one weighs. We say, um-m-m, ah—57 pounds 12½ ounces.

NEW PASTOR AND CHURCH CARPET

The all-day meeting of the Aid Society on Thursday presented a busy scene at the West Glendale church, while the ladies sewed carpet rags and tied comforts and proudly tacked down the new church carpet which has been procured by their earnest efforts. With the new sidewalk outside of the little church a most invitingly new and attractive air of welcome pervades, which includes the new minister, Rev. Crandall and his family, for whom a reception is to be given next week.

Rev. Crandall comes here from Santa Maria, Cal., where his work has been for the last four years. His family arrived on Tuesday, and includes, besides Mrs. Crandall and himself, three children. The older daughter, Miss Marian Frances, is in the University of Southern California, and the younger, little Miss Louise, will be in the eighth grade. The son, Eugene, Jr., is a seventh grade boy. Rev. Crandall is a graduate of the old St. Lawrence University, in New York, and also received a theological degree from Boston University.

On the week following the pastor's reception the indefatigable Aid Society ladies have a social planned for the benefit of the church carpet, and it is hoped that contributions at this time will complete the last payment for this worthy cause so persuasively demonstrated right on the ground, or, strictly speaking, the floor of the church. There will be an enjoyable program on this occasion, besides a pleasant social evening and a good time is anticipated.

PEACE BOMBS

The following clipping from the Tucson Citizen of August 21, 1915, shows that while looking after his Arizona mining interests, the present secretary of Glendale's Chamber of Commerce made the published suggestion of peace bonds as a method of publicity in Mexico:

"It is believed by many, though doubted by a few who have lived in the land of the Montezumas," said Walter Church, "that practical good results would soon follow if the appeal to Mexico lately made by the United States and its six South American co-strivers for peace, could be placed directly in the hands of the common people of our sister republic across the Rio Grande.

"But if opposed by either of the warring military leaders, an attempt to do that by the usual methods of publicity would certainly fail.

"How, then," asks Mr. Church, "can that last effort of the long drawn out watching and waiting policy be really tested on its merits?

"That it should be so tested is a matter of primary importance in the minds of millions of our people and their South American allies in their great co-operative struggle for peace—even at a very high price."

That Mr. Church has a simple and, as he claims, practical answer to his own question is evidenced by the following telegram sent last night to President Wilson:

Tucson, Ariz., August 20.
President Woodrow Wilson, White House, Washington, D. C.:

If biplanes and pilots are provided, would you favor request to permit Mexican citizens to fly over Mexico, dropping peace bombs loaded only with copies of your continental peace petition? Thus the peace bird's paramount cooing would reach the heart of Mexico's man with a hoe.

WALTER CHURCH.

"These 'peace bombs,'" continued Mr. Church, "are only harmless wooden or paper mailing tubes, which Mexican youths and maidens, singing 'La Paloma' ('The Dove'), would drop from low flying passenger biplanes into the streets of every village, town and city of their beloved country. Thus they could let all citizens understand that their seven friendly neighbors would guarantee peace to their war-cursed republic also, if they, the great Mexican people, will only demand it."

250 MEN DRAFTED

On account of men who had been accepted by the local board failing to pass the physical examination at Camp Lewis, and on account of dependents, it has become necessary for the board to call for another draft of 250 to make up the full quota of 125 men from this district. The list will be published in the Evening News tomorrow afternoon.

Patronize the Red Cross concert, Monday night at the High School Auditorium, 7:45 o'clock.

Some of You Remind Me

—of the cheerful optimist who fell from the top of a sky scraper, and as he passed the 10th floor on his way down yelled out: "All right so far."

—Because you have never had a fire, or an accident you think you are "all right so far" and do not need insurance. You get the point, don't you?
